

Clothing/Houseware Donation Resources in Evanston

Connections for the Homeless (Hilda's Place Shelter)

Lake Street Church basement

1458 Chicago Ave

Donations accepted every evening between 6-9pm. Entrance off alley behind church. Bring donations to the door. Donations left in "blue bin" are not given to their clients.

Adult clothing only, especially jeans, belts, men's shoes and towels, winter outerwear, gloves, hats, coats, boots, blankets

Deacons' Clothes Closet

1427 Chicago Ave.

847-864-1472

Accepts gently used clothing, shoes, sheets, towels, suitcases and other items. Deacons ask for men's and women's clothing only; children's clothes are not accepted. Particular needs include: Plus-sized clothing for women and men; Men's clothing: shirts, pants, sweaters, and shoes; Winter coats and boots, for both men and women; Sheets, towels, and blankets

ESCCA (Evanston School Children's Clothing Association)

1500 McDaniel

Accepts new or gently-used winter school clothing and outerwear for K-8 children, sizes youth 5 through teen sizes. Clothes children are proud to wear to school!

Heavy winter jackets, spring/fall jackets, snow pants; long sleeve shirts, sweaters, sweatshirts, hoodies and fleece; jeans, sweatpants, fleece pants, leggings, skirts; winter hats, gloves, mittens and warm scarves

Family Focus Clothing

2010 Dewey

847-475-7570

Accepts baby and adult clothing

Donations can be dropped off Monday and Wednesday between 9-5.

Clothing center door is down a few steps in the back of the building off parking lot.

Goodwill Donation Center

1916B Dempster St (Evanston Plaza next to Valli. Drive through drop-off, receipt provided)

M-Sa 9a-9p, Sunday 10a-8p

Accepts clothing, housewares, furniture

Junior League Thrift House

920 Chicago Ave

M-F 11-5, Sat 10-5

Accepts used clothing, toys, small furniture and housewares

Thrift House offers vouchers to Mary Lou's Place (Evanston YWCA Domestic Violence Shelter) enabling clients to shop at no charge.

Prom dresses

Formal gowns, evening shoes and sparkly jewelry can be donated to Dreams Delivered Prom Boutique at:

Woman's Club of Evanston, 1702 Chicago Avenue

Call 847-475-3800 to arrange a time to drop off year round

YWCA Evanston

1215 Church St

24/7 Drop Box next to main entrance

(Proceeds from sale of items in dropbox helps support domestic violence services program.)